

Journal Analysis Paper (50 points)

1. Is the paper well written? (20)
  - Correct grammar & punctuation?
  - Concise?
  - Logical flow and structure?
  - On time?
2. Is the paper informative? (20)
  - Does the paper tell us the major trends and issues in this journal?
  - Does the paper identify the major authors and articles?
  - Does the paper synthesize the findings to provide us a new understanding?
3. Is the paper interesting? (10)
  - Does the paper engage the reader in an interesting and yet professional way?
  - Is the paper an appropriate length? (8-10 pages)
4. Did you make a strong individual contribution? (graded by peers and instructor). A strong contribution is expected and thus not shown in the grades. However, a weak contribution will result in points deducted from your score on this paper.